

Anointed Obedience

Chapter 9

Audio Lesson: Old Testament Survey lesson 35

Objective: To understand the main differences between the life of Saul and the life of David.

“The Lord does not look at the things man looks at. Man looks at the outward appearance, but the Lord looks at the heart.”

—1 Samuel 16:7

Saul’s disobedience caused the Lord to cast him away from His presence and take His Holy Spirit from him. When that happened, the life of Saul became a walking definition of what we describe in our culture as the disintegration of a personality.

David’s life was the exact opposite of the life of Saul. The dominating characteristic of David’s life was obedience—he was a man after the Lord’s own heart who would do all God’s will. Where Saul’s life was disintegrating because he had divorced himself from God, God was bringing everything in David together because David was more focused on obedience and Saul was focused on disobedience.

David was a shepherd, a musician, a warrior, a leader, and a friend. Most important of all, he is described as a man after God’s own heart.

1. True or false? God is just as concerned about how we look as He is about how pure our heart is.
2. True or false? David became king immediately after Samuel anointed him.

Ask God to give you a heart like David's. Thank Him that He has sought for you to know Him and love Him.

Going Deeper

1. Contrast what the people saw when they looked at Saul with what God saw when he, through Samuel, looked at David (1 Samuel 16:7). Compare this to what James calls the sin of showing favoritism, partiality, or in the Authorized Translation, the sin of respecting persons (James 2: 1-9). _____

2. What did God see when He looked at the heart of David? _____

3. Do you base your evaluation of people on their persons (externals or masks) or on what you believe is in their heart? Explain. _____

4. Profile the tool kit and the leadership gift patterns of David that qualified him to be the best king that Israel ever had. _____

5. When David fought Goliath, what motivated him, and where was his confidence that he, as a young teenager, could kill the 9-foot giant? _____

6. Where are most of David's writings found? What do they tell us about who/what David was? _____

7. As you consider the disintegration of the personality of Saul and the integration of the life and personality of David, why did Saul hate David so much, and what does it tell us about the character of David when he refused to kill Saul? _____
